

Consistent with the DeKalb County School District,
D.A.T.E. will end the school year on Friday, May 15, 2020.

GRADES:

Students' grades from January 6 - March 13, 2020 have been archived. Virtual learning assignments can only be used to improve a student's final average for the course.

REMEDICATION

D.A.T.E. offers a free summer camp for academic remediation for enrolled students in current grades K - 7. Space is limited! Please click on the link for more information. Parents will be contacted by May 15 for placement confirmation.

DATE - Summer Camp \(current grades K - 7\)

- ❖ The camp is contingent upon the most recent state, local and district guidance related to health advisories per the COVID-19 pandemic. Consistent with DCSD, D.A.T.E. will monitor guidelines as it relates to large gatherings and establish parameters in compliance with the guidance.

PROMOTION/RETENTION

Per the GA Department of Education, students will not take the GA Milestones assessment. There is no retention of students based on the GA Milestones End-of-Grade assessments. Students who are not passing core classes at the end of the school year will receive targeted intervention support to address any academic needs during the 2020_2021 school year.
